- 7.6.7. If the suspension or dismissal was proposed to the General Meeting by the Supervisory Board, the resolution is adopted by an absolute majority without a quorum required. In all other cases, the General Meeting may only suspend or dismiss a Supervisory Director:

 - b. with an absolute majority of the votes cast, representing more than one third (1/3) of the issued share capital.
- 7.6.8. Article 7.6.7 subparagraph a. only applies until the earlier of (i) the first day of January two thousand nineteen and (ii) the date it becomes public information by means of the AFM Register that Gribhold holds less than twenty five (25%) of the issued Ordinary Shares. The suspended Supervisory Director must be given the opportunity to account for his actions at that meeting. - 7.6.10. If one or more supervisory directors are prevented from acting, or in the case of a vacancy or vacancies for one or more Supervisory Directors, the remaining Supervisory Directors will temporarily be in charge of the supervision, without prejudice to the right of the General Meeting to appoint a temporary Supervisory Director to replace the Supervisory Director concerned.

A document stating that one or more resolutions have been adopted by the Supervisory Board and signed by the Company Secretary will constitute valid proof of those resolutions. - 7.8.5. If the Supervisory Board Rules provide that the vote in favor of one or more Supervisory Directors with a specific function is required for a resolution to be adopted, and if the Supervisory Board cannot adopt a resolution as a result of a Supervisory Director whose vote in favor of the resolution is required having a conflict of interest as referred to in the first sentence of article 7.8.4, the Supervisory Board Rules may provide that the resolution can nonetheless be adopted by unanimous votes of the other Supervisory Directors entitled to vote.

- 7.8.6. The Managing Directors shall attend the meetings of the Supervisory Board, if invited to do so, and they shall provide in those meetings all information required by the Supervisory Board.

- 10.1.2. Distributions of profit, meaning the net earnings after taxes shown by the adopted Annual Accounts, shall be made after the adoption of the Annual Accounts from which it appears that they are permitted, entirely without prejudice to any of the other provisions of the articles of association.

- 10.1.3. A dividend shall be paid out of the profit, if available for distribution, first of all on the Cumulative Preference Shares in accordance with this paragraph.
- a. If the Cumulative Preference Shares are fully paid up only at the expense of the Company's reserves, the annual dividend will be one thousand euro (EUR 1,000) for all outstanding Cumulative Preference Shares together, which amount will be calculated over the proportionate period of time if the relevant Cumulative Preference Shares were issued in the course of the financial year.
 - b. In case subparagraph a. of this article 10.1.3 does not apply, the annual dividend paid on the Cumulative Preference Shares shall be based on the percentage, mentioned immediately below, of the amount called up and paid-up on those Cumulative Preference Shares. The percentage referred to in the previous sentence shall be equal to the average of the three (3) months EURIBOR during the period the Cumulative Preference Shares are issued, increased by a margin between one hundred (100) and five hundred (500) basis points. The margin shall be fixed by the Management Board in the first financial year after the Cumulative Preference Shares are issued and each financial year thereafter as long as Cumulative Preference Shares are issued and margin shall depend on the prevailing market conditions. EURIBOR shall mean the Euro Interbank Offered Rate.

If in the financial year over which the aforesaid dividend is paid the amount called up and paid-up on the Cumulative Preference Shares has been reduced or, pursuant to a resolution to make a further call on said Cumulative Preference Shares, has been increased, the dividend shall be reduced or, if applicable, increased by an amount equal to the aforesaid percentage of the amount of such reduction or increase, as the case may be, calculated from the date of the reduction or, as the case may be, from the date when the further call on the Cumulative Preference Shares was made.
 - d. If and to the extent that the profit is not sufficient to pay in full the dividend referred to in the first sentence of this article 10.1.3, the deficit shall be paid to the debit of the reserves of the Company provided that doing so shall not be in violation of article 10.1.1.
If and to the extent that the dividend referred to in the first sentence of this article 10.1.3 cannot be paid to the debit of the reserves, the profits earned in subsequent years shall be applied first towards making to the holders of Cumulative Preference Shares such payment as will fully clear the deficit, before the provisions of the following paragraphs of this article can be applied. No further dividends on the Cumulative Preference Shares shall be paid than as stipulated in this article 10.1.3, in article 10.2 and in article 11.2. Interim dividends paid over any financial year in accordance with article 10.2 shall be deducted from the dividend paid by virtue of this article 10.1.3.
 - e. If the profit earned in any financial year has been determined and in that financial year one or more Cumulative Preference Shares have been cancelled against repayment, the persons who were the holders of those Cumulative Preference Shares shall have an inalienable right to payment of dividend as described below.

The amount of profit, if available for distribution, to be distributed to the aforesaid persons shall be equal to the amount of the dividend to which by virtue of the provision in the first sentence of this article 10.1.3 they would have been entitled if on the date of determination of the profit they had still been the holders of the aforesaid Cumulative Preference Shares, calculated on the basis of the period during which in the financial year concerned said persons were holders of said Cumulative Preference Shares, such dividend shall be reduced by the amount of any interim dividend paid in accordance with article 10.2. With respect to amendments of this paragraph, the proviso as referred to in section 2:122 BW is made.

- f. If in the course of any financial year Cumulative Preference Shares have been issued, with respect to that financial year the dividend to be paid on the Cumulative Preference Shares concerned shall be reduced pro rata to the day of issue of said Cumulative Preference Shares.

- 10.1.5. The profit remaining after application of article 10.1.3 and 10.1.4 shall be at the disposal of the General Meeting, provided that no further distribution shall be made on the Cumulative Preference Shares. The General Meeting may resolve to carry it to the reserves or to distribute it among the holders of Ordinary Shares.

- 10.1.7. Subject to the other provisions of this article 10.1 the General Meeting may, on a proposal made by the Management Board which proposal is approved by the Supervisory Board, resolve to make distributions to the holders of Ordinary Shares to the debit of one or several reserves which the Company is not prohibited from distributing by virtue of the law.
- 10.1.8. No dividends on Shares shall be paid to the Company on Shares which the Company itself holds in its own capital or the depositary receipts issued for which are held by the Company, unless such Shares are encumbered with a right of usufruct or pledge.
- 10.1.9. The Management Board is authorised to determine how a deficit appearing from the Annual Accounts will be accounted for.

- 10.2.2. The interim statement of assets and liabilities must relate to the condition of the assets and liabilities on a date no earlier than the first day of the third month preceding the month in which the resolution to distribute is published. It must be prepared on the basis

It must be signed by the Managing Directors and Supervisory Directors. If one or more of their signatures are missing, this absence and the reason for this absence must be stated.

- 10.2.3. In the event that all Cumulative Preference Shares are cancelled against repayment, on the day of such repayment a dividend shall be paid, this dividend to be equal to the premium paid on the Share (if any) concerned increased by a distribution to be calculated in accordance with the provisions of article 10.1.3 and with respect to the period no distribution as referred to in the first sentence of article 10.1.3 has been made until the date of repayment, all this provided that the requirement of article 10.1.1 has been met as demonstrated by an interim statement of assets and liabilities as referred to article 10.2.2.

 - b. secondly, the balance, if any, remaining after the payments referred to in subparagraph a. of this article 11.2.3, shall be for the benefit of the holders of Ordinary Shares in proportion to the nominal value amount of Ordinary Shares held by each of them.
